VOLUNTEER PROGRAM

Meet new people and help to make the State Fair a success — become a Volunteer!

WHAT DO VOLUNTEERS DO?

◆ During exhibit check-in, volunteers help organize exhibits for judging.

◆ Volunteers help display crafts, flowers, produce and food exhibits.

◆ Volunteers experience the fair from the inside as they work with the staff and superintendents.

◆ Volunteers make the State Fair of West Virginia a HUGE success year after year!

◆ Volunteers choose the department(s) and the hours they volunteer

AGRICULTURE PRODUCE

ARTS & CRAFTS

FOODS

NEELEWORK

FLOWERS

◆ Volunteers assist with contests for kids like the new VEGGIE RACES and with adult contests like the special cooking contests.

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS

How do I sign up to volunteer?

Call the fair office (304) 645-1090 and give us your name, mailing address and phone number. In June, we will send you an information packet telling you dates, times, etc. of volunteer shifts and duties.

When can I volunteer?

Volunteers are needed on the following days...

August 10th, 13th, 17th and 18th—
Exhibit check-in and set-up

August 14th—22nd—Special contests

Can I volunteer if I exhibit?

Yes! We do ask that you not volunteer during judging if you exhibit in that department.

VOLUNTEER REWARDS

◆ One preferred parking pass for the day(s) you volunteer.

◆ A free gate admission ticket for each two (2) hour shift you work.

◆ Meet new friends and become a part of the State Fair team.

◆ Volunteers will be special guests at the annual appreciation reception held each fall.

◆ Learn more about competitive exhibits!
